

400 Miles of Tourism-Generating Riverside Nature Parks and Minimally-Invasive Outdoor Recreational Infrastructure Connected by a Bicycling and Multi-Use Trail inside Forested Riparian Buffers for Improving Water Quality, Wildlife Habitat, Quality of Life, Health, Education, Active Transportation, and Economic Revitalization. Concept developed by 37 representatives of federal, state, regional, county, municipal, and non-profit organizations from PA (32), NY (4), and MD (1) in meeting in Williamsport, PA, Nov. 13, 2014, organized by Headwaters PA (PA), Genesee River Wilds (NY), Susquehanna Greenway Partnership (PA), and Lycoming County Planning Commission (PA). Map courtesy Lycoming County PA Planning Commission.

For more information, see the "Triple Divide Greenway" page of the website of the Genesee River Wilds Project at www.geneseeriverwilds.org